In celebration of Stockland's vibrant communities across Perth, popular TV chef and Stockland Food Ambassador, Miguel Maestre will host a community beachside barbecue at Amberton Beach in Eglinton WA early next year and is looking for an official taste tester to join him.

From now until 31 January 2024, people in Western Australia are encouraged to share their favourite barbecue or summer recipes for their chance to taste test Miguel's cooking at the barbecue and win a gift hamper valued at $1,000.

To enter, participants simply need to follow @stocklandliving_wa on Instagram, post a photo of their favourite summer recipe or dish and tag Stockland with #StocklandWA. Bonus entries are available for tagging friends and sharing on Instagram Stories.

The lucky taste tester will enjoy an exclusive experience with Miguel Maestre at the Amberton Beach barbecue on Saturday 23 March 2024 and give the dishes their seal of approval.

"I can't resist firing up the barbie come summertime – it's my favourite way to soak up the beautiful weather with great food and even better company," Mr. Maestre said.

"I've always believed that cooking and sharing food with friends is how you capture the spirit of togetherness. It's what makes neighbourhoods so special.

"I'm absolutely thrilled at the chance to roll up my sleeves and share my grilling secrets at Stockland's Summer Sizzle," Mr Maestre added.

The winner will be announced the week of 5 February 2024.

Stockland General Manager WA Development, Col Dutton said the business is proud to build vibrant communities that bring people together.

"We design our communities to help residents get to know one another and stay connected, whether it's through community barbecues, festivals, or neighbours gathering over a shared love of food, gardening, or sport," Mr Dutton said.

"Across Stockland's communities in Western Australia, you'll find leafy parks, playgrounds, and walking tracks, which all encourage a healthy and active lifestyle. Our nearby town centres are an important hubs for small businesses, and a convenient spot for a coffee with friends or picking up daily essentials."

The Stockland Summer Sizzle contest is exclusively open to Western Australia residents, with hungry foodies of all ages are encouraged to make their way down to the community BBQ. Visit @stocklandliving_wa for competition details, including terms and conditions.
