STOCKLAND SHELLHARBOUR TO WELCOME SUITE OF NEW RETAILERS

Stockland Shellharbour is pleased to welcome a number of exciting new retailers to the centre this month.

The new stores will include Stepz Fitness, Neverland, Big Bowl and Gong Cha. Genki Massage, Tree of Life and City Chic will also be relocating within the centre, and both Footlocker and Specsavers will be expanding their stores.

Australian-owned 24-hour gym franchise Stepz Fitness is looking forward to officially opening its largest ever facility at Stockland Shellharbour on Monday, 11 October.

Sam Waller, Managing Director and franchisor, said: “We’re thrilled to be opening our 16th club at Stockland Shellharbour, which will also be our largest Stepz facility yet, at 500 square metres.

“Stepz is all about creating an enjoyable, non-intimidating, no-ego environment where people feel comfortable to train and focus on their health and fitness goals. We’re confident that this will resonate with our clients, and that they’ll love the friendly and motivated environment at the new Shellharbour location.”

Daniel Buchanan, Centre Manager at Stockland Shellharbour, said that the team has worked hard to ensure strength and diversity in the new retailers coming in.

“Our team has listened to what the community wants to see at our centre and responded by securing a really great mix of national brands and up-and-comers that will we know customers will love.

“We’re proud to be the Illawarra’s largest shopping centre and to be such an attractive place for retailers of all kinds to open and operate in the area. These new retailers are a testament to our strong performance as a centre, and how supportive the community is of its local businesses.”

The new stores are expected to open by the end of October 2022. Fresh Soul is also expected to open in November 2021.
